

Joe Painter

Objective	Exhibit and display design and production
Summary	Academic specialization in three-dimensional problem solving; practical experience with a commercial display firm along with freelance projects; software and fabrication skills
Education	Bachelor of Fine Arts , College of Design Integrated studio arts Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa Graduation: May 2006
Skills	Computer: Proficient in Adobe Illustrator, basics in Quark Express; using a PC or Macintosh platform Materials: Clay modeling, lettering, paint, wood Equipment: Safely operate power tools for carpentry Administrative: Deadline oriented, attention to details, team worker, presentation experience Management: trained library workers, facilitated youth craft classes
Design Experience	Exhibit Intern , summer 2005 Vivid Display, Omaha, NE Freelance , Literature display rack, 2004 Salvation Army, Ames, IA Crafts teacher and counselor , summer 2004 Snowy River Youth Camp, Boone, IA,
Additional Experience	positions held to finance college education Library Worker , Parks Library, ISU, Ames, IA 2004-present Waitress , Peoples, Ames, IA 2002-present
Exhibitions	"reflections", mixed media, Art at the Knoll, Juried, 2005 "journey", mixed media. Art and Design Annual, juried, 2004