

Lori Beard Raymond Interior Design Scholarship

Background:

The purpose of these scholarships and procedure for selection of the recipients have been approved by the donor and the faculty in Interior Design. The amount varies annually and will be awarded each spring. Interior Design Program within the Department of Art and Design shall be responsible for the selection of recipients and for the distribution of funds.

Selection Criteria:

1. Recipient shall be an undergraduate in the Interior Design program
2. Recipient shall be participating in the summer internship program.
3. Recipient shall show financial need. A FAFSA must be on file with the student financial aid office.

Additional consideration:

1. Preference will be given to someone interested in the city design market areas in using the internship experience to achieve maximum personal development.
2. The student selected should show active and serious interest in Interior Design and future potential for professional achievement in this field.

Selection Procedure:

1. Fill out the College of Design Scholarship Form (see below on page 2).
2. Fill out the Interior Design Summer Internship Scholarship Application (see below on page 3).
3. Portfolio containing a maximum of two interior design projects, including a short paragraph on the design parameters and concept for each.
4. Minimum of two support letters. Letters should be submitted by the faculty member directly to the Department of Art and Design office, Room 158.
5. Name of the major city in which internship is to be completed.
