

Academic Advising Award – 2009

Nominee: _____

Department, Position and Date of ISU Employment: _____

Purpose:

To recognize the significance of undergraduate advising as a service to students and a key in student retention. To reward outstanding performance in advising students during their undergraduate study, formally while serving as an academic advisor, and/or informally as a classroom or studio instructor.

Eligibility:

The nominee must be a permanent ISU College of Design faculty or staff member who regularly instructs and/or advises undergraduate students.

After receiving the award, an individual will not be eligible for a 5-year period. (Past recipients are ('08) Paul Bruski, ('07) Tara Lynne Clapp, ('06) Dana Reed, ('05) Mimi Wagner, ('04) Theresa DeWitt and John Wagner, ('03) Ingrid Lilligren, ('02) Howard Heemstra, ('01) Ann Gansemer-Topf, ('00) Frank Bell, Jr., ('99) Lynn Paxson, ('98) Timothy McIlrath, ('97) Mary Joyce VeVerka, ('96) Mary Howard, ('95) Michelle Rasmussen, ('94) Dennis Dake, ('93) John Maves.)

Content of the Nomination:

Provide a narrative which addresses the nominee's impact on students in:

- Academic success and progress in the curricula
- Retention and/or changing majors
- Choice of electives
- Career planning, internships, work experiences
- Professional/personal development
- Problem solving

Advisee Information:

Indicate the number of undergraduate advisees assigned to the nominee for the last three years:

2007-08 _____

2006-07 _____

2005-06 _____

Supporting Documentation:

In addition to addressing the content areas above, the following must be submitted on behalf of the nominee:

- Three letter of support from students
- Two letters/memos from faculty and/or staff

Name of Nominator: _____

Signature of Nominator: _____

Date: _____

Nominations are due to 134 College of Design by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 6, 2009.