

2005 College of Design Career Days Schedule of Events

THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 2005

9:00-10:30, 4th Floor Center

Careers in Art and Design: Chris Vance and John Phillip Davis, both successful artists have great advice for emerging artists on how to get accepted into art shows, art fairs and galleries.

11:00-12:00, 4th Floor Center

Careers in Art and Design: Meet Ron Wagner, a professional Comic Book artist for DC, Marvel and more. Ron will show his original work and give student advice on how to break into this market.

11:00-12:00, Kocimski Auditorium, COD

Creative Careers at American Greetings

11:00-12:45 p.m. (Atrium)

Firm Registration and set-up: Firms arrive at the College of Design, park temporarily and check in at the registration table for space assignment, name tags, lunch tickets, parking instructions, blank interview schedules and other event details. Students will be available to assist in transporting and setting up your exhibit.

11:30-12:30 p.m., South Forum (Atrium)

Lunch for firm representatives: Sack lunches are provided. Tables will be available in South Forum (Atrium) for lunch or representatives may prefer to eat lunch at their exhibit space while setting up displays.

12:00-1:00, 4th Floor Center

Careers in Art and Design: Betty Young, recent ISU BFA graduate, will share her experience as a studio artist and how she has been successful in getting accepted to art shows

12:50- 1:00 p.m.

ISU College of Design Alumni photo: All alums please gather on stair landing and in front of cyber station.

Other photos: Career Days 2005 Planning Committee

1:00 p.m.

Welcome and Opening Remarks!
The College of Design Career Days 2005 begin!

1:00 p.m.–6:00 p.m., Lyle Lightfoot Forum (Atrium)

Student/firm interaction: Students will visit firm displays to meet representatives, find out more about firm's work, learn about design careers in general, inquire about internships, full-time employment and interviews. Students are encouraged to get feed back on their resumes and portfolios.

Firms are eager to offer career and job search advice for students, so please have your resumes and portfolios with you when speaking to them.

Check the firm listings on the Career Days website to determine which firms are conducting interviews.

Thursday Interviews: Some firms will be interviewing informally at their exhibit, at tables in the South Forum (Atrium), or at tables in Vendoland on the south end of the Second Floor.

Friday Interviews: Arrangements for interviews can be made at exhibits on Thursday. Each firm may handle their interview schedules differently so check with them regarding their plans. Firms will have Room assignments for the interviews; a list will also be available at the Registration Table in the Atrium on Friday morning,

2:00-4:00, Joe Muench's Metal Studio, Design 44

Careers in Jewelry Design: Ann Au, ISU Alum, jewelry designer and gallery owner, AU2, Valley Junction, West Des Moines.

Ann will also demonstrate techniques that she uses to create her unique designs.

3:00-4:00, 4th Floor Center

A panel of recent architecture graduates will give practical advise on finding a job and discuss "a day in the life of an intern architect". Lisa Burkholder, InVision; Zane Muntz, 360 Architects; Jill Berger, University of Iowa Hospital and Clinics.

4:00-5:00, Kocimski Auditorium, COD

Creative Careers at American Greetings: Learn many career options for artists and designers including illustrators, photographers, animators, graphic designers, product designers and even humor writers!

4:00-5:00, 3rd Floor Center

Landscape Architecture Careers, Brian Clark & Associates, Des Moines, IA

5:30-6:30, Kocimski Auditorium, COD

David Dahlquist with RDG Dahlquist Clayworks Studio, integrating art into public and private spaces and in the landscape. The Studio produces both structural and ornamental artworks.

6:00-6:30 p.m. COD Forum (Atrium)

Closing remarks and invitation to reception: Students will be available to assist firms in taking down and transporting displays to vehicles.

6:30-8:00pm, COD Forum (Atrium)

Career Days Reception: After a busy and productive day, students, firm representatives, faculty, and staff are invited for an informal reception with refreshments and musical entertainment. We welcome and encourage everyone to come.

6:30-7:30 p.m. COD Forum (Atrium)

Tours and student exhibitions: Please take a few minutes to look at student work, exhibited throughout the college. Students will be available to lead you through a tour of the building.

7:30 -8:00 p.m. COD Forum (Atrium)

Door prize drawings at Career Days reception. Thursday's Career Days activities conclude.

FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 20057:45-9:00 a.m. COD Forum (Atrium)

Career Days Registration Table

Firm representatives who have scheduled Friday interviews arrive at the COD and check in at the Registration table. A student will be available to direct you to your interviewing space.

8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Various locations in COD Interviews9:00 – 10:00 a.m., 3rd floor center

Art Gallery Careers: Susan Ode with Olson Larson Gallery in Valley Junction, West Des Moines. Susan will discuss talents, aptitudes and experience required to be a gallery representative and also offer advice on presenting your art work to galleries.

10:00-11:00 a.m., 4th floor center

Careers in Landscape Architecture: Lutjen, Inc., Kansas City

10:00-11:00 a.m., 3rd floor center

Careers in Art Therapy: Penny Smalling received her undergraduate degree from ISU in art with a minor in psychology.

She attended Lesley College in Cambridge, MA and received the Masters in Expressive Therapy, Art Therapy specialization. She is a registered art therapist and is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor. Penny is currently working in a residential program as a therapist.

11:00-12:00, 4th floor center

Careers in Landscape Architecture: Hitchcock Design Group, Naperville and Chicago, IL

11:00-12:00, 3rd floor center

Careers in Interior Design: Tanya Keith, ISU Interior Design alum, will talk about the wide variety of interior design jobs in her career, and how she founded her business, Simply for Giggles. Her company provides interior design and mural painting for children and families. The company's website is www.SimplyforGiggles.com.

12:00-1:00 p.m. Forum (Atrium)

Lunch: Students and representatives join together for an informal lunch and conversation.

3:00-4:00, 3rd floor center

Careers in Landscape Architecture, Mariani Landscape

3:00-4:00, 4th floor center

Careers in Corporate Art Collection Management: Libby Jacobs, Principal Financial Group, Des Moines, IA

4:00-5:00, Auditorium

Paul Dorrell, author of the guidebook for artists, Living the Artist's Life, has excellent advice for emerging artists about growing, persevering and succeeding in the Art World. Paul is an artist, gallery owner and art consultant. Books are available to purchase at the event.