Steven Voss becomes Principal in Charge of Strategic Leadership and Geographic Expansion

Tempe, Arizona – June 3, 2019 – RVi Planning + Landscape Architecture is excited to announce that Steven Voss, Sr. Vice President, has been selected for a new role as Principal in Charge of Strategic Leadership and Geographic Expansion for RVi.

In this new leadership role, Steven will be responsible for the development and implementation of a business development plan to identify, research and recommend geographic expansion opportunities for the firm. Steven will serve the firm as a strategic thought leader in the infill development, planning and landscape architecture markets, and will provide trend insights, service expansion prospects and expand client growth opportunities.

Steven’s professional experience includes projects pertaining to master planned communities, resorts, golf course planning, hospital campus planning and design, educational campus planning, mixed use master planning, vertical mixed-use planning, large scale city planning, commercial, industrial, site design and landscape design. Steven has planned and designed projects throughout Arizona, California, New Mexico, Texas, Hawaii, Michigan, Montana and Mexico. Steven served on and Chaired the Tempe Design Review Board and the Arizona State Land Department Board.

Steven has been involved in some of the most significant projects in the Southwest including Anthem, Estancia, Seven Canyons, The Boulders, Mayo Hospital, Westworld and Sandy Beach, Rocky Point, Mexico. RVi has been involved in other significant projects such as Victory at Verrado.

Since the merger, Steven has led the integration efforts with RVi and supported the firm’s continued growth throughout the region. With Steven’s 37-year career in land planning and design and 25 years as principal and owner of LVA, he is well positioned to strategically lead geographic expansion efforts in the western region and throughout the country.

As of July 1’ 2019, the Tempe office located at 120 S Ash Ave, Tempe, AZ 85281 will be led by Mark Reddie as Principal in Charge, Doug Craig, Principal LA and Alex Stedman, the RVi Tempe Management Team.
