The undergraduate minor in Urban Studies is an interdisciplinary program that emphasizes urban life in a variety of settings and from different disciplinary and methodological approaches. The Urban Studies minor will allow students to explore varied and multiple dimensions of urban and community life through differing conceptual and analytical frameworks.

Students can pursue interests in:

- urban history
- urban design
- neighborhood revitalization
- economic development
- social movements
- global urbanization

The elective courses allow students to examine the interplay among different groups occupying urban space, the problems they confront, their struggles for recognition and power, and the forces shaping the physical terrain they inhabit. Electives may be chosen from among courses from the Colleges of Design, Agriculture and Life Sciences, Engineering, Human Sciences and Liberal Arts and Sciences

Students wishing to pursue this minor may elect to apply courses towards the minor that already form part of their degree.
